

THE REDMOND FAMILY

Missionary-Evangelists to North America

December 2015

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

November was a very busy month for us for which we are extremely grateful. We had services in Tennessee and central Alabama, a revival meeting in South Carolina, and then closed out the month with services in eastern Alabama. The Lord was gracious in protecting us and giving us great services in each church.

We began the month at Unity Baptist Church in Summertown, TN, with Pastor Brandon Smith. We have known Brandon and his family for years, and we were glad to be with them again. Since our trailer was still in the shop, we drove the two hours to Summertown on Sunday morning and spent the day there. We had good services at the church, as well as good fellowship, and then returned to Alabama that night.

On November 7, we helped conduct a Fall Festival at Victory Baptist Church in Cullman, AL, for Pastor Keith Whitley and his dear people. Bro. Van Billingsley moderated much of the activities on that day, and he and I both preached for the Old-Fashioned Sunday on the 8th. It was a great time of fun and fellowship on both days.

For the evening service on November 8th, we drove over to Ashville, AL, to be with Pastor Gerald Taylor, his family, and the people of Lighthouse Baptist Church. As always, the Taylors and the church people warmly received us. The service was great that night along with the fellowship. The church people put together some gift bags for Tamatha and the children which were much appreciated. We enjoyed a great time at Lighthouse Baptist Church in Ashville, AL.

After picking up our repaired trailer and moving back in, we headed to Easley, SC, for a revival with Pastor Darren Smith and the people of Trinity Baptist Church. We enjoyed a fantastic meeting throughout the week. Attendance was very good each night, and the messages graciously received. We appreciate some family and friends in the area who came to the services. We certainly thank Bro. Smith and the church for allowing us to labor with them.

Following the revival, we headed to eastern Alabama. We labored for several services with Pastor Jim Grantham and the people of Faith Independent Baptist Church in Smiths Station. Each service was very special, and the time of fellowship was as well. We are thankful we could labor there throughout the two weeks. We also set the dates for our spring Tent Revival as you can see on back.

The last Sunday morning of November we were in Lanett, AL, with Pastor Jeff

Thorn and the people of Central Baptist Church. It has become a tradition to be with them the Sunday after Thanksgiving, and we enjoyed a great service and afternoon of fellowship. As usual, everyone was very kind to us. We appreciate being able to labor with them and look forward to being there again the last Sunday of November in 2016.

As I mentioned in that last sentence, plans for 2016 are being made. It never seems to amaze me at how fast the years past. I guess that is true for all of us. As I tell the children, hours turn to days, days to weeks, and weeks to months. Before you know it, a year is gone and then a lifetime. We try to enjoy every moment in service to the Lord and in the time we spend with our children, but even then, the time passes so quickly. Be sure to notice the meetings for 2016 that are scheduled so far. We will add more next month.

We appreciate the cards and offerings that have been given so far in December. From all of us, we wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
