Missionary-Evangelists to North America

February 2016

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

Our plan for the first part of 2016 was to visit some of our supporting churches where we have not been for several years and update them on what their support has enabled us to accomplish over the years. We also wanted to visit some other churches where we have been in the past, but who do not necessarily support us monthly. The final thing we would do in January was take our trailer in for some needed upkeep and repairs. These goals kept us in North Carolina for all of January except for one week spent in Tennessee.

We began the month by staying some extra time at Morning Star Baptist Church in Shelby, NC. We had closed out 2015 there as we had the previous three years. We planned to move to another part of North Carolina, but Pastor Keith Linzy had some heart problems, and we stayed so I could preach for them. We were glad to do so and enjoyed being able to labor among the people at Morning Star again.

The first Wednesday night of 2015, we drove to Kannapolis, NC, to update Pastor Tommy Wensil and the people of Unity Baptist Church. They have faithfully supported us for eight years. It was a great blessing to tell them what we have been able to do over the past several years and also to see many new people in their church who have been saved in the past few years. The people were wonderful to us, and we enjoyed being in the service with the people of Unity Baptist Church.

From Shelby, we drove up to park at Northwood Baptist Church in Yadkinville, NC. From there we would be able to drop into several churches. Our first stop was Faith Baptist Church in Germanton, NC. Pastor Kenny Heath and his people have supported us for eight years as well. I was able to give an update and Tamatha and the children sang. We enjoyed our time seeing the people of Faith Baptist in Germanton again.

On Wednesday, January 13, we drove to North Wilkesboro to see Pastor Donnie Shumate and the people of Bethel Baptist Church. This was the first church in North Carolina to support us. The people warmly received us and it was a great blessing to report to them what we have been doing over the past several years.

The following Sunday night we went to Victory Bible Baptist Church in Tobaccoville, NC. I had preached at this church several years ago, but we had not been back since. We were able to meet the new pastor, Justin Duncan, and inform the people what we had been doing since we were there last. After giving the update, Bro. Duncan asked me to preach. I was glad to do so, and we were very glad to be in a service with these dear people.

On January 25th, we drove to Tennessee to spend some time in Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge. The children enjoyed some time out of school, and we all had a great time that week. On Wednesday, we went to Parkway Baptist Church in Sevierville. Pastor Andy Miller asked me to preach during the service, and I was glad to do so. Tamatha and the children also sang. We enjoyed seeing the people of Parkway again this year.
