Missionary-Evangelists to North America

January 2016

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

We closed out 2015 with great services in churches throughout South Carolina, Georgia, and North Carolina. We had the privilege of laboring somewhere each week of the month, and we certainly appreciate the pastors and churches allowing us to be with them. We also enjoyed celebrating the birth of Christ all through the month. Tamatha and the children decorated our trailer, and the children excitedly counted down the days until Christmas. It was a fantastic finish to an outstanding year.

We began the month with Pastor Joey Curado and the people of Calvary Baptist Church in Salley, SC. I taught Sunday School and preached all of the Sunday services as well as Wednesday night. We enjoyed each service and the fellowship with the Curados throughout the week. This was our third consecutive year of being with them, and we are already looking forward to being with them again this coming December.

From Salley, SC, we headed to soggy Conway, SC. While most of the state had recovered from the floods of the fall, Conway and Myrtle Beach was still feeling the effects. The place where we parked was still wet from the floods, and it rained more while we were there. However, the rain and wetness did not hinder good services. We enjoyed our time in church on Sunday, and then celebrated Christmas with the church at their banquet on Wednesday. I preach all day on Sunday, and then gave a devotional at the banquet. We had a great time with Pastor Dell Richmond and the people of Freedom Baptist Church. We are looking forward to our Tent Revival with them in June.

After Conway, we moved to Jefferson, GA, to be with Pastor Kevin Whitman and the people of The Jefferson Lighthouse Baptist Church. We enjoyed great services with them and were happy to participate in their Christmas gift exchange. We are looking forward to being with them in May for their annual Missions Meeting.

We spent Christmas week in Greenville, SC, and were able to be in our home church on Wednesday night. I gave a review of the year's events, and Tamatha and the children sang. We then were able to hear Pastor Joey Willis preach for the first time. On Christmas Day, we opened gifts with each other and feasted on a great meal by Tamatha. Then we headed over to spend time with Tamatha's family.

The month and year closed out in Shelby, NC, with Pastor Keith Linzy and the people of Morning Star Baptist Church. I enjoyed teaching Sunday School and preaching all the services on Sunday and Wednesday. We celebrated the end of 2015 and the beginning of 2016 with the six of us in our trailer. We had a great time with the Linzy family and the people of Morning Star.
