

THE REDMOND FAMILY

Missionary-Evangelists to the United States

August 2017

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

After spending the spring and first two weeks of summer in the Southeast, Indiana, and Michigan, we arrived in South Dakota. Aside from a Sunday in Iowa, we spent the entire month in South Dakota laboring in four churches. We had a great time evangelizing neighborhoods, preaching in church services, tent revivals, church revivals, and conducting a vacation Bible school. The Lord protected in our travels and provided for us. We are very thankful for a great month of July.

We began the month by parking in Elk Point, SD. We had the first Sunday of July open, so we drove down to Onawa, IA, to meet Pastor Matt Sperling, his family, and the people of Onawa Bible Baptist Church. We enjoyed a good Sunday School and morning service and stayed the afternoon to fellowship with Bro. Sperling and his family. We had such a good time that we stayed through the evening service which they used to prepare for their Vacation Bible School later in July. We are so glad our paths crossed with the Sperling family and Onawa Bible Baptist Church.

We spent the evening of July 4 with the Hailey family in Elk Point. Even though we were scheduled to be with them in August, Bro. Hailey asked me to preach during their Wednesday service on July 5. I was glad to do so especially since we had missed seeing them last year because of my dad's death. We enjoyed spending some extra time with the Hailey family and the people of Elk Point Baptist Church.

From Elk Point, we drove across South Dakota to be with Emmanuel Baptist Church in Box Elder. Pastor Ken Schultz scheduled us and the Paul Crow family to help with some door-knocking in the neighborhoods of Rapid City. Unlike many of the small towns that we labor in, there would be plenty of people to reach. Box Elder is right outside the second biggest city in South Dakota. Compared with cities back east, Rapid City is not huge. But compared to the rest of South Dakota, almost 70,000 people is massive. We spent the mornings and some evenings knocking on doors. We did not see any conversions while we were there, but we did plant and water the seed with some. I met a couple of people who were looking for a Baptist church. We pointed them, of course, to Emmanuel Baptist Church. At the end of the week, we were able to help reach almost 1,000 homes with the Gospel. I preached Sunday and Wednesday nights as well. We enjoyed the services, door-knocking, and fellowship with the people of Emmanuel Baptist Church.

We spent the next two weeks in Faulkton, SD, with Pastor Benji Beaudoin, his family, and the people of Amazing Grace Baptist Church. In the mornings, we helped Bro. Beaudoin with Vacation Bible School. In the evenings, Bro. Van Billingsley and Preaching the Gospel to the Sinner, Encouraging the Believer, and Exalting the Name of Jesus Christ until He Comes Again.

I alternated preaching under the tent. Some children in the town came to the VBS. At the end of the week, two of them made professions of faith. Our children, the Beaudoin children, and the visiting children all enjoyed a great week of VBS as they learned about being in the Lord's army. Some adults visited during the evening services. We had a great time of VBS and tent revival in Faulkton, SD.

Our final stop of July was in Pukwana, SD. Pastor Chris Cote scheduled a revival from Sunday through Wednesday. We had great services throughout the week with the people of Victory Baptist Church. The church members faithfully attended each night. Bro. Cote showed us some property in the neighboring town of Kimball that is for sale. The church is praying about buying it and saving some money to do so. It is exciting to see what the Lord is doing at Victory Baptist Church.

By the time you receive this, we will have started school. This is a big year for all of us. William starts his senior year and will graduate next May. Nowelle will be a junior. Wesley Peter will be a freshman. Silas is in the sixth grade, his last year of elementary. William is not sure about what to do after high school. Pray that the Lord will begin to show him what to do with his life.

Praises

1) Great services throughout South Dakota; 2) Protection in travels; 3) Provision of needs; 4) Additions to schedule.

Prayer Needs

1) Power in Preaching; 2) Protection upon the highway; 3) Provision of Needs; 4) Completion of Schedule. We do have two Sundays in September that need to be filled. Pray that the Lord will provide some places to serve Him in North Dakota, Montana, or Idaho.

Preaching the Gospel,
