

March 2018

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

We spent the month of February in North Carolina as we were waiting for the final repairs to be done on our trailer. By the end of the month, we had our trailer back, had moved all of our possessions back into it, and were back on the road. In between, we stayed busy visiting friends in the churches near Shelby. All were glad to see us, and many allowed us to labor with them when we stopped by. We appreciate all of the pastors and churches throughout January and February who were so good to us.

Our first stop was with Pastor Leo Kuykendall at Zion Baptist Church in Gastonia, NC. They asked Tamatha and the children to sing during the morning service. As we were leaving that morning, Bro. Kuykendall asked me to preach that night. I was privileged to do so, and we enjoyed a great service that night and a good time of fellowship after the service.

On February 14th, I filled in for Pastor Greg Little at Victory Baptist Church in Gaffney, SC. Tamatha and the children sang before I preached. We enjoyed being a part of the prayer meeting service with the people of Victory Baptist Church.

The following Sunday morning we drove to Lincolnton, NC, to see Pastor Alan Wheeler and the people of Redeemed Baptist Church. In between Sunday School and the morning service, Bro. Wheeler asked me to preach. I was glad to do so. Tamatha and the children sang right before I preached. We had a great time with the Wheelers and Redeemed Baptist Church.

That night we drove down to be with Pastor Randy Shields and Calvary Baptist Church in Chesnee, SC. Bro. Shields asked Tamatha and the children to sing. The church people were very good to us, and we were glad to see them again.

As you can see on the back, our schedule is filling up. I have made some contacts, and most of the pastors are very willing to have us be with them. We appreciate their kindness to us, and we look forward to laboring with each pastor and church this year. There are a few gaps in between, and we hope to fill them in before too long. Many of the churches are ones that we go to each year, and we are excited to see them again. If I have not contacted you yet, and you want us to come, feel free to send an e-mail or call me.

We are also excited about returning to Minnesota this year. Bro. Gary Sweckard called a few days ago with great news. Their church is taking us on for support, and he also invited us to be with them the first Sunday of August. We are looking forward to seeing everyone again.

As we head into a busy spring, summer, and fall, we want to say a special thank you to all of our supporting churches and friends. We have had some that had to drop us due to financial problems. We understand that happens, but we want those who are still supporting us to know that we do not take your support for granted. We know the Lord uses you to help meet our financial needs. The monthly support provides about one-third of our needs. The remainder comes through love offerings and gifts through the mail. Thank you to everyone that enables us to serve the Lord.

Praises
