Missionary-Evangelists to North America

August 2012

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

After spending several months traveling and preaching in several states throughout each month, we stayed in South Dakota for all of July. We spent the first three weeks on the eastern side and the final two weeks of the month in central South Dakota. The Lord was very good to us in keeping us safe as we traveled between churches and in giving us the privilege of preaching in each place.

We are very thankful to announce that we have a new supporting church. Faith Independent Baptist Church in Smiths Station, AL, notified us that they have voted to take us on as their new missionary. This church just started last August, and we had the privilege of being there this past May. While talking with Pastor Jim Grantham, he expressed a desire to do more in relation to missions in the United States. As one who travels the United States, I wholeheartedly agreed when Bro. Grantham said that the US is in desperate need of more Bible-preaching churches. That is what I have been telling others for years. The church sent support for May, June, and July. We are mighty thankful for their desire to support us, and we look forward to preaching a tent meeting there next April.

Due to financial trouble, two churches in North Carolina dropped our support. That lowered the number of our supporting churches to 19. The addition of Faith in Smiths Station increases that number to 20, along with two families. God takes these monthly supporters and combines it with love offerings from individuals and churches to supply our needs. To many, it seems an unusual way to live, but it is wonderful living completely dependent upon the Lord to supply our needs.

Praises

1. The Lord provided through our regular supporters, the churches where I preached this month, and also special offerings from my dad, David Redmond Sr. Again, we are so thankful for everyone that has a part in this ministry.

2. We enjoyed a good service at Bible Baptist Church in Brookings, SD, on July 1. Pastor Jason Filler was away and allowed me to fill in for him.

3. On Sunday night, July 1, I filled in for Pastor Lamar Whittemore at Harvest Baptist Church in Watertown, SD. I also preached there on Wednesday, July 4. We enjoyed good services and fellowship while there. We had a cancellation on the 8th, so we ended up staying another week with the Whittemores and doing what we could to help in the church.

4. From Watertown, we headed north to Milbank, SD. Carl and Lisa Funderburk moved there two years ago and started Milbank Baptist Church. It was the first time that we had been there. We enjoyed good services and fellowship with them and were able to canvass a neighboring city for them while there.

5. We left a new place and went to a familiar place—Hoven, SD. I have preached several years in services and meetings for Pastor James Ruckman at the Glory Bound Baptist Church. We enjoyed great services and fellowship throughout the week.

6. Our final stop in July was Pierre, SD, and the River City Baptist Church with Pastor Jeff Vollmer. I preached in Pierre last year, but we could not stay because the city was flooding. This year we were able to move our trailer to Pierre and help out by preaching, painting the porch, and canvassing some neighborhoods. We enjoyed our stay with the Vollmer family.

Prayer Needs

1. The children have said that they are sad, but they will have to get over it. School starts August 13th. All of the children have full days now, so Dad and Mom will stay busy teaching something to each of our children. Combined with several meetings that we will have in the fall, our days will be full. But we will enjoy teaching the children and having the services.

2. Power in Preaching; 3. Protection in travel; 4. Provision of needs.
