August 2013

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

After several months of being in different states throughout each month, we stayed in South Dakota for the entirety of July. We had great services in each church and an outstanding tent revival in Faulkton, SD. The children are enjoying their time off from school, and so are mom and dad. But school is just around the corner. In fact, it will start during the month of August.

The Lord continues to bless in many different ways, including financially. I mentioned last month that a tire malfunctioned in June. While in Chamberlain, SD, the Larson family gave the money to replace that tire. They also gave us some meat and honey from their farm. In Pierre, SD, the Lantz family gave us a good offering as well.

We also were blessed by those who sent some offerings through Macedonia, our mission board. As I looked over our statement, I noticed a couple of large offerings. One was from Jeffrey Jacques, who blesses us several times throughout the year with offerings. The other was from Faith Independent Baptist Church in Smiths Station, AL. It was specially marked for the children. William, Nowelle, Peter, and Silas were thrilled to know that something was given especially for them. They are excited about spending their "own" money.

We are thankful for all of these gifts and also for the regular support from our faithful churches and families. Your gifts allowed us to preach throughout South Dakota in July. Every message that was preached was possible because you gave. Thank you very much for allowing us to serve the Lord.

Praises

1. We began the month in Brookings, SD, at Bible Baptist Church, pastored by Jason Filler. Bro. Filler and his wife took the opportunity while we were there to take a mini-vacation. I preached on Sunday while Bro. Filler was gone. We enjoyed our time at Bible Baptist Church.

2. We left Brookings for Faulkton, SD, to get ready for the tent meeting. We enjoyed good services on Sunday and then set the tent up Monday morning. I preached Monday and Thursday, Bro. Van preached on Tuesday and Friday, and Benji Beaudoin preached on Wednesday. Since Bro. James Ruckman is going to Africa, Bro. Beaudoin came with his family to consider taking the church. A week or so after the meeting, Bro. Beaudoin announced that he felt led of the Lord to pastor the church. He will raise support for a while and move to Faulkton next year. He has already asked us to bring the tent back next year. Praise the Lord!

We saw several visitors come to the tent meeting. One lady came on Tuesday and was there the remainder of the week. She also talked about coming to church the following Sunday. Instead of passing out the invitations door-to-door, Bro. Ruckman had them placed in the local paper as an insert. Though it cost money to do so, it was a great investment. One couple, about 30 minutes away, received the ad in their paper. We probably would not have reached their house if we had just gone door-to-door. The couple is unsaved, but they heard the gospel that night. Many members of Glory Bound Baptist Church in Hoven drove 45 minutes each night to be a part of the meeting. Another family in the church drove about an hour each night and were there every night. That is amazing, but a blessing to see. Pastor Doyle Hall and his wife drove over 2 hours on Monday night and another pastor did the same thing another night. God blessed during each service with good singing and powerful preaching. We are looking forward to being in Faulkton again next year.

3. After the tent meeting, we went to Chamberlain, SD, to minister at Calvary Baptist Church. I had preached at Calvary several times, but this time would be with a new pastor. Pastor Doyle Hall took the church last year from the church planter, Duane Earwood. The transition has gone well, and it was a great blessing to see many familiar faces and also some new ones. We enjoyed the services at Calvary and also enjoyed getting to know Bro. Hall, his wife, and some of the church people better.

Preaching the Gospel to the Sinner, Encouraging the Believer, and Exalting the Name of Jesus Christ until He Comes Again.

4. We closed out July in Pierre, SD, at River City Baptist Church with Pastor Jeff Vollmer. River City is a special church because it was the first church in South Dakota where I preached. We have been privileged to labor there every year since 2007. We had some great services and enjoyed the fellowship with the Vollmer family.

5. Again, we are very thankful for each gift from our regular supporters and from those that gave one-time offerings. Every gift enables us to serve the Lord. Thank you very much.

6. We are thankful for the new services that were scheduled in the past month.

7. Praise the Lord for His protection upon us as we traveled throughout South Dakota.

8. Wesley Peter turns 10 on August 30, and Nowelle turns 12 on September 1.

Prayer Needs

1. Our 8-day meeting in Kansas was canceled. That opens up two Sundays in October. Pray that we will find the place that the Lord would have us serve for those two Sundays.

2. We also have some confirmations to make for November and December. I have been in contact with some pastors about dates for those months. Pray that we will be able to confirm those soon.

3. Pray for Power in preaching, Protection in travel, and Provision of needs.

Preaching the Gospel,
