November 2014

Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

After leaving Idaho, we headed south to Utah and Arizona. We spent a week in Utah and the rest of October in Arizona. We had the privilege of laboring in two churches in Utah and also two churches in Arizona. While in those areas, we were able to drop in a couple of churches and received a good response and invitations to come back next year. The Lord protected us in our travels, and we enjoyed every place we were able to serve.

We began the month of October in Ogden, UT, at Lighthouse Baptist Church. This was our second year in a row to labor with Pastor John Mosier and his family. I had the privilege of teaching the adult Sunday School class and preaching the morning service. After the morning service, we enjoyed some fellowship with the Mosiers and the church people. Monday afternoon, we were able to help Bro. Mosier put up a new sign. As soon as we finished, a car slowed down, and the people commented that the sign was very nice. We enjoyed our time with the Mosier family and Lighthouse Baptist Church.

Sunday night, October 5th, we drove over to Logan, UT, to be with Pastor Nathan Kirkman at Mt. Logan Baptist Church. Bro. Kirkman and his family started the church just a few months ago, and the Lord is blessing in a great way. We met Bro. Kirkman when his family came to help pass out revival flyers at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Blackfoot, ID. We had a great time in the service and in our fellowship time afterwards.

On Wednesday, October 8th, we dropped in at Heritage Baptist Church in Salt Lake City, UT. Pastor Brown was very receptive to us and invited us to stay in touch when we come through Utah next year. We are looking forward to laboring with them next year.

From Utah we headed to Tucson, Arizona. Our first Sunday there, the 12th, was open which allowed us to drop in at Pleasant View Baptist Church. We enjoyed the message from Pastor Bill Howard, and he invited me to preach that night. We enjoyed getting to meet and know the Howards and the people of Pleasant View Baptist Church.

The final two Sundays of October, I preached at Faith Baptist Church in Tucson for Pastor Stan Stringer. We enjoyed a great fall festival on our first Wednesday there as well. The services and fellowship were great throughout our time at Faith Baptist Church.

On Sunday night the 19th, we dropped in at Old Pueblo Baptist Church in Tucson. Pastor John Shuerger and his people received us warmly. After the service, Bro. Shuerger told me to stay in touch for next year. We are looking forward to laboring with them next year, as the Lord leads.

Praises

1) Great services in every church; 2) Invitations to come back to churches where we labored and also the possibility of being in new churches next year; 3) Protection in travel; 4) Provision of needs. We certainly appreciate our faithful supporters and also the special offerings sent throughout the month. We mentioned last month about a large financial need. Several responded, and we thank you so much; 5) The Lord is putting our schedule together for next year. We have four tent revivals scheduled with 3 or 4 others very possible. We are excited as to what the Lord will do next year.
