Dear Fellow Believers and Friends,

The Lord blessed and gave us a wonderful December. We stayed busy throughout the month laboring in churches in South Carolina and North Carolina. We also thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas season with our immediate and extended families.

We began the month in Salley, South Carolina, at Calvary Baptist Church with Pastor Joey Curado. Tamatha and the children sang on Saturday night, and I gave an update on where the Lord allowed us to serve for the year. On Sunday morning, I taught Sunday School and preached the morning service. On Monday, we traveled with the Curados to Life Baptist Church in St. Stephen for the Low-country Baptist Fellowship. We also enjoyed great fellowship with Bro. Joey and Sis. Susan throughout the week.

On Sunday night, December 7, we traveled to Columbia to be with Pastor Rick Kirchinger and Anchor Baptist Church. One of my high school teachers, Steve Crout, is a member of the church and talked with Bro. Kirchinger about having us come and be in a service. The church received us well, and I had the privilege of preaching. We had a great time with the Kirchingers, Crouts, and the people of Anchor.

We headed further south to spend a few days in Conway, SC, with Pastor Dell Richmond and Freedom Baptist Church. We enjoyed great services on Sunday and Wednesday and wonderful fellowship with the Richmonds throughout the week.

For the week of Christmas, we headed to Greenville. I preached at our home church, Gospel Baptist Church, on Sunday, and we enjoyed getting everything ready for Christmas. Because of the generosity of several people, the children had many presents to unwrap. We certainly appreciate every gift that was sent to us in December. Several of you were a great blessing to us.

We closed out the year in Shelby, NC, with Pastor Keith Linzy and the people of Morningstar Baptist Church. We enjoyed great services on Sunday and Wednesday. This was our third consecutive year to spend the last Sunday with the Linzys and Morningstar. The Lord willing, we will close out 2015 with them.

In spite of several cancellations in the spring because of Tamatha's hospitalizations, we still enjoyed a busy year. I was able to preach in 27 churches in 10 states. We traveled over 18,000 miles and spent over $6,000 in fuel. We certainly appreciate every offering that enabled us to serve the Lord in each church. Every message that was preached, every invitation and tract that was distributed, and every preacher and preacher's family that was encouraged—all of these were possible because you gave. Thank you so much for every dollar that was given. It was not in vain.

Praises

1) Our faithful supporting churches and individuals. We also appreciate the special offerings in December from Jan Stafford, Jerry Skelton, Arnold and Jordienne Larson, Richard and Shirley Hughes, and Jeffrey Jacques. Also, the churches where we labored were very good to us; 2) The privilege of laboring in each church with each pastor, his family, and the church people. We had a wonderful time in each place throughout December and the year. Thank you for letting us be with you and serving the Lord together; 3) The safety in traveling across South and North Carolina; 4) The wonderful time celebrating the coming of Christ with family and friends.

Prayer Needs

1) Completion of schedule; we have several tent revivals, church revivals, and Sunday services scheduled already for which we are thankful. Pray the remainder will be filled easily; 2) Pray for safety in traveling; 3) Pray for power in preaching.
